IN THE HIGH COURT OF BOMBAY AT GOA

MISC.CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 872 OF 2005

IN

WRIT PETITION NO. 191 OF 2005

MRS.MARIA CYNATHIA D'SA AND 22 ORS., ...Applicants

Versus

CENTRAL REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES AND 3 ORS., ...Respondents

Mr. M. V. V. Ramanna with Mr. Anthony D'Silva, Advocate for the applicants.

Mr. J. P. Mulgaonkar, Advocate for respondent No.3.

Coram:- D. D. SINHA, J.

Date:- 9th December, 2005

P.C.

Heard Mr. Ramana, the learned Counsel for the applicants and Mr. Mulgaonkar, the learned Counsel for the respondent No.3. Misc. Civil Application No.872/05 is moved by the applicants for extension of time to file their objections as per Multi-State Co-operative Societies Rules, 2002 before the Central Registrar of Co-operative Societies. The learned Counsel states that this Court vide Order dated 14th October, 2005 had granted two weeks time to the applicants to file their objections. However, since the applicants could not collect the relevant documents necessary to be filed along with the said objections, the same could not be filed within two weeks. The Counsel for the applicants, therefore, prays for extension of time by two weeks for filing the said objections.

The Counsel for respondent No.3 has stated that if this Court is inclined to grant extension as prayed for, in that case, this may be by way of a last chance.

Considered the conventions canvassed by the respective Counsel. In the backdrop of the above referred facts and in the interest of justice, two weeks' time is granted from today to the applicants to file the above referred objections as per the Multi-State Co-operative Societies Rules, 2002 before the Central Registrar of Co-operatives Societies. It is made clear that this two weeks time is granted by way of a last chance for the applicants to file their objections. No further time shall be granted.

With these observations, Misc. Civil Application is disposed of.

D. D. SINHA, J.
